This guide was created after the core AnthroHeart assets were completed.

The assets came first: books, songs, audio masters, metadata systems, and an expansive universe of characters.

This investor document reflects the infrastructure and licensing strategy built on top of that creative foundation.

Overview

Anthro Entertainment LLC is a debt-free, single-member business entity operating under a DBA since 2019.

We are requesting a $10,000 angel investment in $2,000 milestones over 5 months, in exchange for 10% gross receipts.

Our primary domain, AnthroEntertainment.com, was registered in July 2019 -- before the AI boom.

This guide was written AFTER the assets were built: 147 songs, lore, WAVs, novels, metadata systems.

Financial Background

Thomas B. Sweet receives $30k/year tax-free (Metlife Disability), covering personal expenses.

No loans, no car payment, no student loans. $550/month mortgage. No business debt.

$21,000 already spent on Freelancer, funded by a cashed-out $75k 401(k) over 10 years ago.

Capital One personal Checking & Savings, Mercury Business Checking & Savings used for funds management.

Infrastructure & Products

- AnthrOS: Crashproof, metadata-powered OS layer
- AnthroHeart Studio-in-a-Box:
 - * 147 Suno-licensed songs (MP3/WAV)
 - * Full novels: The Warlock Name, Cio's AnthroHeart Saga
 - * Cio Psalms (149-page poetry)
- Audio/image files embed links like: <https://metadata.anthroentertainment.com>

Art & Copyright Strategy

We use AI only as a reference -- not for final assets. AI is not copyrightable.

We teach artists to copyright and brand their work legally. $400 paid to secure rights to 8 characters.

Artist Education & Distribution Model

Artists watermark by expanding canvas above the image.

They add:

- name
- timestamp
- donation link: <https://donate.anthroentertainment.com>

This preserves art, keeps it public domain, and makes it tradable -- like Pokemon cards.

IP Licensing Model

Our IP is public domain but our trademarks (AnthroHeart, AnthrOS) are not.

We license branded versions for commercial use.

Investors receive 10% of gross receipts from any such deals.

Hosting & Deployment

Servers:

- Linux VPS: $86/mo (Liquid Web)
- Windows Metal: $250/mo
- Backups: $0.05/GB
- AT&T 1Gbps Fiber (planned)
